US #	User Story
1	As a user, I want to find the meanings of difficult words so that I can expand my vocabulary.
2	As a user, I want to know how to pronounce difficult words so that I can improve my reading.
3	As a user, I want to choose books from a selection so that I can read the book I am interested in.
4	As a user, I want the book I am reading to be available on mobile devices so that I can read anywhere and anytime. Developers think that only for tablets
5	As a user, I want the book I am reading to be available offline so that I can read anywhere and anytime. 4th and 5th sound the same to me
6	As a user, I want book suggestions so that I can find books that I would like.
7	As a user, I want the text to be large so that I can see the words clearly.
8	As a user, I want a smaller number of words per page so that I am not overwhelmed with information.
9	As a user, I want pictures in my book so that I can visualize what I am reading.
10	As a user, I want to change the font size so that I can see the words clearer.
11	As a user, I want the background to be off-white so that it does not hurt my eyes.
12	As a user, I want to read in both portrait and landscape mode so that I can choose how to hold the device.
13	As a user, I want to be matched with a peer so that I have a company while I read.
14	As a user, I want to know what my comprehension level is so that I know my standard.

15	As a user, I want books to be sorted by comprehension level so that I know which book would be ideal for me.
16	As a user, I want periodic tests so that I can track my improvement in comprehension levels. (This should be more precise "periodic tests" isn't correct expression.
17	As a user, I want to find and add friends so that I can have buddies to read with.
18	As a user, I want to use voice recognition to test my reading so that I know if I am reading correctly.
19	As a user, I want to be able to read by myself so that I can read anytime.I think you wanted to say "read on my own" or "chose on my own what to read"
20	As a user, I want to read the same book as my friend so that we can learn together.
21	As a user, I want a list of all the books I have read so that I can revisit the ones I liked.
22	As a user, I want to mark books I am interested in so that I know what to read later on.
23	As a user, I want to leave reviews for books I have read so that others may know what I thought of it.
24	As a user, I want to see the covers of the books so that I feel like I am at a bookstore.
25	As a user, I want to search for books on the marketplace so that I can find books I might be interested in.
